2010 Housing Fair

The objective of the Housing Fair is to provide information on how to purchase and retain a home in Montgomery County. Our focus has expanded and will address many homeownership issues including first-time buyers, affordable housing, financing and insurance. It will also include topics for current homeowners such as foreclosure prevention & reverse mortgages. With the current financial and real estate crisis, there are new programs, and new requirements for existing programs, to learn about and to share with homeowners. The goal is homeownership and providing whatever is needed to keep and attain that goal for all families wanting the American dream.

This event is free to the public. The Fair will include an exhibitor area consisting of approximately 30 booths available to non-profits, banks, mortgage companies, realtors, insurance companies, home inspectors, credit companies and other housing-related organizations. Space will be assigned on a first-come, first-served basis and booths with electricity are very limited! See the enclosed registration form for cost details.

As you know, we live or do business in one of the most affluent counties in the country. We can often lose sight of the difficulties many buyers face trying to obtain (and keep) the dream of homeownership. Within Montgomery County, there are many non-profit organizations and government sponsored programs willing to assist homebuyers and homeowners with counseling and financial assistance. Many lending institutions offer low cost loans to further enable the potential homebuyer and homeowner to "break the barrier".

The Montgomery County Partners for Home Ownership's 2010 Housing Fair is a great way to reach Montgomery County's homebuyers and homeowners. Sign up today!
